SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background: This is the second public hearing the Commission will hold during its 2023 report cycle. The hearing will start with an assessment of the state of education in China and its interconnection with China's economic growth and development. Next, the hearing will examine how China's higher education system advances growth, knowledge, and innovation. Finally, the hearing will evaluate China's education policies aimed at promoting strategic and emerging industries and the implications for strategic competition with the United States.

The hearing will be co-chaired by Commissioner Robin Cleveland and Commissioner Reva Price. Any interested party may file a written statement by February 24, 2023 by transmitting to the contact above. A portion of the hearing will include a question and answer period between the Commissioners and the witnesses.

Authority: Congress created the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission in 2000 in the National Defense Authorization Act (Public Law 106-398), as amended by Division P of the Consolidated Appropriations Resolution, 2003 (Public Law 108-7), as amended by Public Law 109-108 (November 22, 2005), as amended by Public Law 113-291 (December 19, 2014).

Dated: February 1, 2023.
